

8.1 State Scout Award Programs

8.1.1 Eagle Scout Award

The New Jersey State Council wishes to recognize the accomplishment of every Boy Scout who earns the rank of Eagle Scout. Eagle Scout is the highest rank that a Boy Scout may attain. This recognition is accomplished through the local council.

The program is simple to administer, easy to participate in and gives exposure to the Council in its community.

These 8 1/2' by 11' award certificates are provided to the requesting local Knights of Columbus council and are suitable for framing. It is signed by the New Jersey State Deputy and the requesting Grand Knight.

The awards should be requested in writing or by email. Telephone requests will be honored in emergencies. Please provide the Gold and/or Silver Award winner's name, (first, last and middle initial), troop number, town where the troop is sponsored and the address where the certificate is to be sent.

Send requests to State Chairman at the address below.
(Please do not send requests to the State Council Office.)

The committee will provide the certificate with only the Grand Knight's signature needed on it prior to presentation.

- Presentation

The Grand Knight, or his representative, should attend the Eagle Scout Court of Honor ceremony to make the presentation. If this is not possible then time should be set-aside during a council meeting for the presentation. Photographs should be taken and a press release submitted to the local newspapers and our New Jersey State Council newsletter, The Cavalcade.

We believe this program to be one of the best public relations tools that the New Jersey Knights of Columbus has.
