The Knights of Columbus Book Club gives you the opportunity to join hundreds of other Catholic book lovers to share your thoughts about the best Catholic literature being published.

Join Supreme Knight Carl Anderson each month in reading insightful and faith-filled books and participating in an online discussion about each book. Discussions are held at the end of the month and are led by Mr. Anderson and his guest authors and authorities on the subjects related to the book. One week before a discussion takes place a form will be available on the Supreme Knight's Book Club page for you to submit your questions.

Transcripts of previous discussions can also be found on the Book Club page (http://www.kofc.org/un/en/publications/sk_bookclub/index.html).

Members of the Knights of Columbus Book Club, through The Catholic Company (www.catholiccompany.com/), can automatically receive each book on a monthly basis and save 20 percent off the retail price.
